BAG-A-LICIOUS

so good you can't have just one

Dear Bagistas,

I'm constantly on the go; in fact, I'm currently writing this while in LA on a short business trip. Just 3 days ago, I was in Florida shooting a show for the Home Shopping Network - that stay was less than 24-hours. And when I'm home, I'm shuffling my laptop and other work essentials from my home office to the city to my business partner's office.

Does this madness sound familiar to you? If so, you'll enjoy the CEO Bag, the perfect desk-on-the-go. Every bride-to-be needs this piece (I know I do), but it's equally as good for career gals like real estate agents, designers, lawyers, writers, students, etc. Aside from the numerous compartments, when unzipped, the bag lays completely flat, creating an instant workspace. For those that don't have a traditional "office" - especially all you entrepreneurs that are jetting-off 24/7 - check out the CEO Bag. I own the orange one in canvas - it's one of the colors of my upcoming wedding, so I couldn't resist. Hum, maybe they should make custom colors and prints for brides based on their wedding?...Just a thought.

Have a bag-a-licious day!
